Origins and Mysteries of the Andes 16D/15N

Duration: 16 days

About this trip

On this tour you will feel a wonderful experience making a trip throughout Peru for 16 days. You will begin your journey through the capital of Peru, Lima also known as “city of the kings” followed by Paracas and the Ballestas Islands, you will have a contact with one of the greatest archaeological mysteries visiting the famous Nazca lines and you can go through one of the deepest canyons in the world “Colca Canyon” in Arequipa, you can also navigate the highest lake in the world (Lake Titicaca) and as a final destination you will visit the best destination in America “Cusco”, the Sacred Valley of the Incas and the imposing Machu Picchu.

Day 1: Airport - Hotel Lima

According to your flight schedule, our team will receive you at the airport and we will go to your hotel in Lima.

You will have the afternoon free to explore the different places in Lima on your own.

IMPORTANT TIPS

We suggest you take advantage of the day to visit the most beautiful places in Miraflores. Visit Kennedy Park, also known as the Cat Park; a short walk will take you to the beautiful Parque del Amor, where you can spend a quiet moment, you can walk along the beautiful Miraflores Malecon, from where you can see the Pacific Ocean, and finally you can go shopping in Larcomar, a class shopping center World, located on a cliff overlooking the sea.

- Overnight: Hotel in Lima
- Meals: none
- Check In: 12:00 / Check Out : 9:00

NOTE: If your arrival time is before check-in time, you can use the hotel’s common areas while you wait.

Day 2: Lima City Tour

In the morning we will make the circuit through the city of Lima, where we will visit the best attractions of Lima in its three historical periods:

Modern Lima: We will make a stop at the Intihuatana Park , located on the Malecón de Miraflores , from where we will observe the Pacific Ocean. We will begin our tour through the modern residential districts of Miraflores and San Isidro. We will observe outside the Huaca Pucllana , pre-Inca ceremonial temple in the form of a pyramid that has survived the urban expansion of Lima. We will continue our journey to the Parque del Olivar and the Financial Center.

Colonial Lima: Our tour will continue towards the Historic Center of Lima , declared by UNESCO in 1991 Cultural Heritage of Humanity, where the center of the Spanish colony was established in the 16th century and the first buildings were erected. We will know the Plaza San Martín , its balconies and old houses, the Plaza Mayor and its most important buildings such as the Government Palace , the Lima Cathedral , the Archbishop’s Palace , the Municipal Palace , the Desamparados Station , among others.

Convent of Santo Domingo: We will enter one of the most important convents of the 17th century. Where the relics of the three most important Peruvian saints are preserved: Santa Rosa de Lima, San Martin de Porres and San Juan Macías.

At the end of our tour, you will have the option of staying in the Indian Market , in Larcomar or returning to your hotel.

IMPORTANT TIPS

We recommend visiting the picturesque district of Barranco and visiting the famous Bridge of Sighs, the legend says that before passing it for the first time we must make a wish and if we spend it holding our breath, our wish will be fulfilled.

We recommend visiting Av. Petit Thouars, where you will find several themed markets from different regions of Peru. I highly recommend the “Indian Market”.

As for food, in Miraflores you will find several restaurants with delicious Creole and marine food (Rosa Náutica, Huaca Pucllana). If you like Brazilian food, you can visit the Ponto Brasil restaurant. Our consultants can indicate the best restaurant options according to your preferences.

- Overnight: Hotel in Lima
- Meals: Breakfast

Day 3: Museums of Lima

In a single excursion, we will visit two beautiful viceregal mansions that house the most important collections of gold, ceramics, textiles and art of pre-Hispanic Peru.

We will start by visiting the Museum of Anthropology and Archeology , it is the oldest state museum in Peru. Its importance lies in the varied cultural heritage that they exhibit in their exhibition halls. Ceramics, textiles, metals, organic and lithic material and human remains preserved with techniques that still surprise specialists.

Then, founded in 1926, the Larco Museum shows galleries of 3000 years of development of the history of Pre-Columbian Peru. It is located in a colonial building of the eighteenth century, which was built on a pre-Columbian pyramid of the seventh century.

This impressive museum is divided into different rooms, shows unique pieces in ceramics, textiles and metals. We can observe its stores with more than 45,000 pieces of ceramics and the erotic art room.

In the afternoon we will pick you up from your hotel to go to the bus station.

Our bus trip to Paracas will be approximately 05 hrs, we will arrive at the beginning of the night, where our transport will take you to your hotel.

- Overnight: Hotel in Paracas
- Meals: Breakfast

Day 4: Ballestas Islands

In the morning we will board a boat to the Ballestas Islands , a natural home of dolphins, sea lions, penguins, pelicans and more than 200 types of migratory birds and residents of this archipelago.

In the Ballestas Islands, we will pass through the Candelabro , a giant hieroglyph made with the same technique used in the Nazca Lines, which causes a lot of curiosity for its size and depth.

Next we will visit the Paracas National Reserve , where the National Center for Biological Research and the Museum that contains Skeletons of marine animals, Musical Instruments and Skulls of people over 7,000 years old, found in the desert sands that are located It connects with the Pacific Ocean, forming large rocks facing the sea with its natural attractions.

At dusk, we will take the executive bus to Ica, where our driver will be waiting to take you to your hotel.

- Overnight: Hotel in Ica
- Meals: Breakfast

“At the agreed time, we will pick you up from your hotel to begin the tour. We will visit Main square and explore the main streets of both Ancient and Modern Ica. Following this, we will take a tour of the “Tres Generaciones” Craft Winery, where you will receive a detailed explanation of wine and pisco production, including tastings. Next, we will head to Huacachina Lagoon, also known as the 'Oasis of America,' to admire the stunning desert landscape surrounded by impressive sand dunes. We will then enjoy a 'tubulares' buggy ride. In the late afternoon, we will board an executive bus to, where our representative will be waiting to take you to your hotel. The Nazca will assist with check-in and provide information about the city and the schedule for the next morning's tour.

- Overnight: Hotel in Nazca
- Meals: Breakfast

Day 6: Nazca - Overflight to the Nazca L

In the morning at the agreed time we will pass by your hotel to take you to the Aerodrome. Arriving at the landing strip, as soon as the weather is favorable, we will begin the overflight of the Majestic Nazca Lines (one of the greatest mysteries of humanity).

The overflight will take about 35 minutes that will allow us to observe figures such as the Hummingbird , the Spider , the Monkey , the Dog and even the Astronaut .

At night we will travel by executive bus to Arequipa.

TO TAKE INTO ACCOUNT

The months of July and August are windy season and flights can change your itinerary and there may even be cancellations due to climate change (See options with the sales area, on cancellations due to strong winds)

IMPORTANT TIPS

Use the weather in Nazca to make the excursion to Chauchilla , where the mummies of the Nazca Civilization are located, you can observe the preservation through their skins, this due to the arid desert climate.

Another suggestion is to know the aqueducts made by the inhabitants of Nazca around 650 BC, which are still in operation until today.

- Overnight: On a night bus to Arequipa
- Meals: Breakfast

Day 7: Arequipa City Tour

At the agreed time, our team will receive you at the bus station and we will go to your hotel in Arequipa.

You will have the morning free to rest.

In the afternoon, at the appointed time we will pass by your hotel to begin our tour, we will visit the city: Santa Catalina Monastery , Arequipa Cathedral , Cloisters , The Church of the Company of Jesus , the San Francisco Complex and the Viewpoints de Carmen Alto and Yanahuara.

IMPORTANT TIPS

Enjoy the museum of the Lady of Ampato (mummy Juanita), one of the most valuable archaeological treasures in Peru.

- Overnight: Hotel in Arequipa
- Meals: Breakfast

Day 8: Colca Canyon

At the agreed time, we will pass by your hotel and go to the Colca Canyon .

On the way we will pass through Chachani , Pampa de Arrieros , Pampa Cañahuas and the Aguada Blanca National Reserve , where we will appreciate the vicuñas, llamas and alpacas that help in the development of the region.

Then, we will pass through Vizcachani , Pampas de Tocra and the Mirador de los Andes .

After lunch we will descend to Chivay , which is the main city and capital of the province of Caylloma .

We will arrive in this city in the afternoon and after check-in at the hotel, you will have free time for lunch (This lunch is not included in the program).

Later we will go to the thermal baths of La Calera , rich in sulfur and iron, ideal for rest and relaxation (optional). You will have free time for dinner (Dinner is not included in the program).

- Overnight : Hotel in Chivay
- Meals: Breakfast

Day 9: Colca Canyon- Cruz of the Condor

Early, around 6hrs, we will leave for Cruz of the Cóndor Viewpoint , where we will observe the wonderful overflight of the condors – the largest flying bird in the world – and the Colca Canyon , which is one of the deepest canyons in the world with 3,400 meters deep, being all conformed by agricultural terraces left by the previous generations that lived there.

Upon returning to Chivay we will visit the villages of Pinchollo , Maca , Acona and Yanque , where we will get to know a little of the local culture and its history.

After lunch (This lunch is not included in the program) we will continue to Puno. Upon arriving in Puno in the afternoon, we will take you to your hotel.

- Overnight : Hotel in Puno
- Meals: Breakfast

Day 10: Titicaca Express Uncovered Lake

At about 06:45 hrs, we will make the transfer from the Hotel to the Port. At approximately 07:15 hrs we will leave by boat " Titicaca Express " south of the island of Taquile , where we will arrive at a white sand beach paradise.

We will walk through spectacular Pre-Inca landscapes and meet local families, their crafts, their culture and their textile activities.

At approximately 11:00 a.m. we will arrive at the community of Santa María , in the Capacheca Llachón peninsula , where we will be introduced to a cultural experience, we will see their dances, traditions and we will be able to participate in an ancestral ceremony. Next, we will participate in the preparation of the " Pachamanca ", which is a traditional way of cooking meat, fish and potatoes, where we will observe the different way of cooking in this town, with an underground oven.

For adventure lovers, optional to kayak along the coasts of Llachón .

We will depart from Santa María and at approximately 2:30 p.m. we will arrive at the island of Los Uros Titono , located in the Titicaca Lake Reserve, considered one of the last floating islands. The inhabitants of the islands of "Los Uros" are descendants of one of the oldest cultures in South America.

Optional ride on rafts of " Totora ".

At approximately 4:30 p.m. we will be back to Puno, where we will leave you at your Hotel.

Overnight : Hotel in Puno

Meals: Breakfast, lunch

Day 11: Puno - Ruta del Sol

In the morning our transport will pass by your hotel to go to the bus station to make the " Ruta del Sol ", where we will visit the most impressive places between Puno and Cusco.

Our first stop will be Pukara , where we will get to know a little of the culture of the old town of the same name that has lived there for 300 years, we will also know its Temple and its particular Museum.

Before lunch, we will visit " La Raya " which is the highest point along the trip, it is the natural border between Puno and Cusco, where we will have excellent photographic views of the place watching the snow.

The next stop will be Sicuani , where we will have a typical lunch.

We will continue and arrive at the Raqchi Archaeological Center which was a Temple built in honor of the God Wiracocha . In these ruins, we will see remains of the Inca culture and the Wari culture.

The last place to visit will be the village of Andahuaylillas , where we will visit its outstanding and fantastic 16th-century church known as the Sistine Chapel of America due to the large number of paintings on its walls and ceilings. It has an organ decorated with angels and cherubs and prodigious murals by the famous artist Tadeo Escalante.

At the end of the afternoon we will arrive in the city of Cusco where our driver will be waiting for you and will take you to your hotel.

- Overnight: Hotel in Cusco
- Meals: Breakfast, lunch

Day 12: Free day in Cusco

This day will be free to relax, go shopping and get to know the tourist attractions the way you want.

IMPORTANT TIPS

We suggest you take advantage of the day to get to know the varied museums of the city: Inka Museum, Machu Picchu Museum, Regional Historical Museum, Chocolate Museum, Museum of Popular Art, Qoricancha Museum, Coca Leaf Museum, among others.

You can also stroll through the streets of the picturesque San Blas neighborhood, the craftsmen's neighborhood, and enjoy its art that is inspired by the Cusqueña School of Art considered one of the most important and original artistic movements in the Americas.

Another place to visit is the San Pedro market, where you will find many beautiful things to take away, in addition to local products and the customs of the villagers (Very low prices)

Another place not to be missed is the Qosqo Center for Native Art, a music and dance show typical of the region, it is a true show. The show starts at 6:00 p.m., but we suggest you arrive at least 40 minutes before to make the line, as it is a very busy place. If you have the general tourist ticket you will have free admission. Entrance ticket: S / 25.00 per person.

Regarding the food, in the Plaza de Armas you will find several restaurants with delicious typical food (Chicha, Tunupa), when you meet our representative at the airport ask for the restaurant "Cholos Grill" is in Plateros street, very good prices .

- Overnight: Hotel in Cusco
- Meals: Breakfast

Day 13: Cusco City Tour

This day you will know the best places in Cusco and the surrounding area.

We will start with the Cathedral , located in the Plaza de Armas, it is the main church of the imperial city, it was built on the palace of the Inca Wiracocha. The Cathedral has more than 300 paintings from the Cusco art school.

Then we will visit the Qoricancha , in the Quechua language means “temple of gold”, it was the first temple built by the Incas, it was formerly covered with large amounts of gold and silver.

We will leave the city of Cusco and arrive at the Saqsayhuaman complex , famous for its huge lithic blocks of more than 150 tons. In the Inca era the temple was considered to lightning, “the god Illapa”.

Next, we will visit the temple of Q’enqo , a place dedicated to the Pacha Mama (Mother Earth) where you can appreciate carved stone constructions.

Then we will arrive at the impressive Inca fort Puka Pukara , in the Quechua language it means Red Fortress.

Finally, we will arrive at Tambomachay , where we will see the sacred temple dedicated to the cult of water that probably also had a purification bath function for the Inca rulers.

At the end of the afternoon we will return to Cusco, where we will leave you at your hotel or if you prefer in the Plaza de Armas.

IMPORTANT TIPS

The City Tour will start in the afternoon. You will have the morning free. Start it by having a good coca tea at breakfast and prepare yourself with a good pair of trekking shoes, as it will help a lot. We suggest getting to know the Plaza de Armas with its colonial temples, the Regional Historical Museum, the Museum of Contemporary Art, the Qoricancha Museum and the Museum of Popular Art. These places will make your visit even more unforgettable.

- Overnight: Hotel in Cusco
- Meals: Breakfast

Day 14: Sacred Valley of the Incas

This day you will know the wonderful Sacred Valley of the Incas also called the Vilcanota Valley .

We will start the day visiting the archaeological complex of Pisaq , located on top of a mountain. This wonderful place is formed by groups of terraces and architectural structures scattered on the slopes and on top of the mountain. Mix the landscape with the wonderful buildings. Then we will go to the artisan market where you can appreciate a variety of works from ancient times.

We will pass through Urubamba where we will pause for lunch, we will taste the typical Peruvian cuisine, with a good variety of dishes, including salads, soups, background dishes, the famous ceviche and delicious desserts.

After lunch we will visit the architectural complex of Ollantaytambo , a living town built to monitor the entrance to this part of the valley and protect it against possible invaders. We will have the opportunity to walk through its streets and have a clearer idea of how this military, religious and cultural center was during the Inca Empire.

After the visit we will board the train to Aguas Calientes. Upon arrival the hotel representative will be waiting to take you to your hotel.

IMPORTANT TIPS

Always with a good breakfast accompanied by coca tea, we recommend that you only carry a small backpack to spend the night in Aguas Calientes (money, light clothes, documents, camera and personal hygiene items). So your trip will be more comfortable and quiet. The rest of your luggage can be left in the luggage storage of the hotel in Cusco, since on the return you will return to the same hotel.

After the visit to Ollantaytambo you will have free time until the departure time of your train. Time you can use to know the streets of the town and interact with the local people.

If you like to drink coffee, do not miss the opportunity to experience one of the best coffees in the world, which is produced in the Quillabamba jungle and you can find it in several of the Ollantaytambo establishments.

- Overnight: Hotel in Aguas Calientes
- Meals: Breakfast, lunch

Day 15: Machu Picchu

In the morning, according to the scheduled time, our guide will pick you up at your hotel to go to the bus station where you will climb 400m along a winding path for 20min to reach the incredible wonder of the world "The Historic Sanctuary of Machu Picchu", also known as "The Lost City of the Incas". Upon arriving at the Machu Picchu citadel with our guide, we will pass through the entrance and begin the tour of the citadel. For around 2h30m we will visit the main places in Machu Picchu.

We return to the town of Aguas Calientes in the afternoon, where you will have free time to enjoy lunch in one of the many restaurants (lunch not included). After lunch, we will take the train to Ollantaytambo (depending on train departure time availability). The return will follow the same route as the departure. Upon arrival in Ollantaytambo, the train representative will be waiting to take you to the bus heading to your hotel in Cusco.

TO TAKE INTO ACCOUNT

Since January 1, 2019, the rules regarding the entrance to the Sanctuary of Machu Picchu changed. Now the time limit for the visit is 04 hours with entry shifts every hour. All our passengers have a guided tour during the 8:00 am shift, as their overnight stay will be in Aguas Calientes.

The visit to the citadel of Machu Picchu is one way and that having passed through a place can not be returned. In addition, there is no re-entry, if we leave the citadel we will not be able to re-enter. Re-entry is only possible if your ticket includes the Huayna Picchu Mountain or Machu Picchu Mountain.

If your ticket includes the Machu Picchu Mountain, the guide in the citadel of Machu Picchu will be 01h30m, so that you have enough time for the hike.

IMPORTANT TIPS

Before going up to Machu Picchu, we suggest leaving your backpack in the luggage storage of your hotel in Aguas Calientes and only take the entrance ticket to Machu Picchu, documentation, money, hat, repellent and sunscreen. Upon returning from Machu Picchu you can pick up your backpack and return to Cusco.

After returning from Machu Picchu to Aguas Calientes, if the schedule allows it, we recommend visiting the Chávez Ballón Museum , which is the site museum of Machu Picchu, admission from 12:00 hrs is free; To enter you just have to present your valid passport.

We must take into account that in the low season and high season it will be necessary to wait in line to board the one-way bus Aguas Calientes – Machu Picchu and return from Machu Picchu – Aguas Calientes, as well as to board the return train from Aguas Calientes. Our guide will help you with recommendations to dose your hours in the best way.
